Morzine/Les Gets

Le Vaffieu +33 (0)4 50 79 09 43

Situated on the Pleney slopes at the exit of the Belvedere & Fys chairlifts, Christian Gravier's restaurant has a sunny terrace all day long and is a great place to stop for lunch. Make sure we reserve a table for you because it's extremely popular! Visit facebook page

Chez Nannon +33 (0)4 50 79 21 15

This family run Savoyard restaurant located on the Nyon Plateau serves up delicious local specialities in a warm and friendly atmosphere. You'll need to book as it's hugely popular, especially on bad weather days and we suggest you try the rib of beef cooked on an open fire for something really quite special! WINTER ONLY. Visit website

La Pointe de Nyon +33 (0)4 50 04 45 64

This is a large restaurant at the bottom of the Nyon plateau with friendly owners and good food – a great place to go for lunch if you're in a big group. Easily accessible for pedestrians as well, via the Nyon cable car. Visit facebook page

Le Chasse-Montagne +33 (0)4 50 75 55 51

This lovely restaurant/lodge is located just below the Folliets du Golf chairlift in Les Gets and has a large sunny terrace as well as a cosy indoor dining area. The menu offers a refreshing change from the classic mountain favourites. Visit website

Le Wetzet +33 (0)6 87 93 10 32

Located halfway down the Gentiane piste (blue) in the Ranfoilly bowl, the large outdoor terrace at this restaurant provides the perfect place to stop for a quick snack on a sunny day. Visit facebook page

La Paika +33 (0)4 50 92 85 22

This restaurant is a bit difficult to find but has a great rotisserie outside cooking poussin, ham hock and lamb shank so it's well worth a visit! Located on the Vorosses piste (blue) which meets the Perrieres chairlift on the back-side of Les Gets. (Accessible by road in summer). Visit website

La Grande Ourse +33 (0)6 79 42 58 86

Incredible 360° views of the Alps; often with a band playing on the terrace. On a sunny day, this restaurant can be very busy so we recommend keeping food orders simple. They serve the best ever hot chocolate, with marshmallows and all the trimmings! They also offer a special evening dining experience with collection via piste basher! Must be booked in advance and priced c. €95 per person. Visit website

Les L'hottys +33 (0)4 50 34 92 09

A really convenient stop for lunch - a sit down restaurant, or take away Panini bar. Good wholesome food, in a warm atmosphere with hanging baskets above the log burners (to warm your ski gear on a cold day). Located at the top of the Nauchets chair-lift; open summer and winter. The #1 location to watch the Tour de France, when it speeds through Les Gets. View tripadvisor reviews

QG +33 (0)4 50 79 86 65

A contemporary mountainside restaurant, in sun-trap position at the bottom of the Chavannes ski run. Excellent lunch food and the staff are very accommodating. If the sun is shining this is a great spot to end the day with a glass of vino, before finishing at the Bellevue après-ski bar. During the summer, it's easy access to the lake (which is excellent for swimming and quite often has the inflatable obstacle course, plus tree-top rope climbing).; open summer and winter. Visit facebook page

La Croix Blanche +33 (0)4 50 75 80 66

Fantastic menu choices; everything is delicious - they even do Poke bowls! Their lunchtime Savoyard omelette is incredible. This is a great position for lunch as it's next to the half-way lift stations and kids can keep skiing, whilst the adults crack open the rosé! Located at the top of Route des Chavannes (by car), or short ski down from Chavanne Express chair lift). They do not take bookings but it's a large restaurant and you will normally manage to find a table (it's worth the wait). Visit website

Le Grand Cry +33 (0)4 50 79 72 97

A limited menu, in comparison to other restaurants, but still lovely - particularly their Potage (soup) and tartiflette. Located next to Le Croix Blanche, as above; open summer and winter. Visit facebook page

Les Chevrelles +33 (0)4 50 79 85 40

Simply the most gorgeous, simple, natural, French dining experience! In the most phenomenal location; the view is off the scale (as are their omelettes and fried potatoes, with a glass of french cider). Located on Mont Caly (take the Mont Chéry gondola and then walk, cycle or off-piste ski across to Les Chevrelles). It's worth every step of the way there! Open summer and winter; you must book in advance. View tripadvisor reviews

Avoriaz/Chatel/Switzerland

La Terrasse +33 (0)4 50 74 16 17

This restaurant absolutely delivers what the name suggests and is the perfect place to eat on a sunny day. Situated in "The Goat Village" just below the Linderets bowl, we highly recommend this friendly lunch-stop; they even do torchlight descents at night for a bit of adventure! Visit Facebook page

La Passe Montagne +33 (0)4 50 74 17 87

This is a great place to stop for a casual lunch in the Linderets bowl. Their menu is simple but their omelettes, salads and burgers are delicious and the roaring log fire inside is the perfect place to warm up on a chilly day. Visit website

L'Abricotine +33 (0)4 50 74 17 43

A great place to stop for a snack if you don't fancy a full on lunch. In a beautiful setting just above the bottom of the Mossettes chairlift which takes you to Switzerland. On a sunny day it's the perfect spot to catch a few rays with a refreshment or two! Visit website

Les Ancelles +33 (0)4 50 74 16 90

One of our favourite places to stop for a long lunch on the sunny terrace before returning to Morzine. Located opposite L'Abricotine at the bottom of the Mossettes and Brochaux chairlifts this small, family run restaurant has a limited but delicious menu and fantastic service. We recommend the croziflette for a twist on the traditional tartiflette. View tripadvisor reviews

Les Fontaines Blanches +33 (0)4 50 74 12 73

Located in Avoriaz high street opposite the tourism office, we love this restaurant for its varied menu and friendly service. The atmosphere is always lively and it's an easy ski back to the top of Prodains if you've had one too many of their home-brewed rum digestifs! View tripadvisor reviews

Boulangerie Le Fournil de Cannelle +33 (0)4 50 92 83 15

If you're in Avoriaz and looking for a quick but hearty snack then head over to this boulangerie where you'll find a huge array of savoury and sweet treats to enjoy on the sunny terrace. Located on the central strip just a few doors down from Les Fontaines Blanches. Visit facebook page

La Tane aux Marmottes +33 (0)4 50 81 37 51

This tiny restaurant in the Pleine Dranse bowl, Châtel, is owned by a lovely lady called Emmanuelle who is extremely hospitable. They can only manage 20 covers indoors but they do great salads and hearty home cooked food – make sure we book you a table in advance. View facebook page

Chez Babeth +33 (0)4 50 73 38 77

Also in Pleine Dranse, this restaurant is locally known as 'the teddy bear restaurant' owned by a complete eccentric called Babeth. Decorated superbly (but not to everyone's taste), it serves a variety of delicious and traditional Savoyarde dishes. Visit website
